

SAINT RITA LENTEN LECTURE SERIES 2015

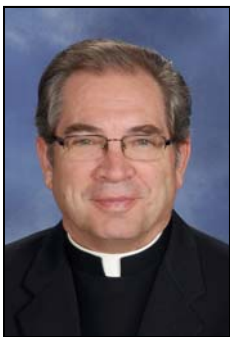

“We are the Church”

Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of Gaudium et Spes

17 February, Tuesday 7:00 PM

“Discerning Right from Wrong:
Moral Decision-Making in the 21st Century”

Rev. Kenneth Weare, Ph.D.
Pastor, Saint Rita Church
Adjunct Professor of Social Ethics, USF

17 March, Tuesday 7:00 PM

“From African Cry to a Gospel Joy
Rooted in Hope: Reading Pope
Francis’ Evangelii Gaudium with African Eyes”

Teresia Hinga, Ph.D.
Associate Professor, Dept. Religious Studies
Santa Clara University

24 February, Tuesday 7:00 PM

“Gaudium et Spes at Fifty:
Still Charting a Course for Catholic Social Thought”

Rev. Thomas Massaro, S.J., Ph.D.
Dean and Professor of Moral Theology
Jesuit School of Theology, Santa Clara U.

24 March, Tuesday 7:00 PM

“Pilgrimage, Presence, and Place:
Art and the Sacred Journey in the 21st Century”

Kathryn R. Barush, D. Phil.
Assistant Professor of Art History & Religion
Jesuit School of Theology, Santa Clara U.

3 March, Tuesday 7:00 PM

“A New Edition of the Catholic
Tradition: The Theology of Conscience in Gaudium et Spes
and Dignitatis Humanae Personae”

Jan Jans, S.T.D.
Associate Professor of Ethics
Tilburg University, the Netherlands

10 March, Tuesday

7:00 PM

“*Classical Music and Quiet
Reflection in Lent*”

Michael McCarty, grand piano
Peter Chase, violin

The evenings begin with a Lenten Soup Supper at 6:15 PM in the Parish Hall, followed by the Lenten Lecture.

Location: Saint Rita Catholic Church, 100 Marinda Drive, Fairfax CA 94930

All are invited. For further information and Soup Supper reservations please call: 415-456-4815